Applicant InformationHow well does the applicant relate to children and other people?

Very good. He is easy to communicate and has a good sense of humor. I don't know how he relates to children but I think he does well.

What particular experience, skills, and personal qualities does the applicant possess that makes him/her suitable for this program?

Matheus is extremely dedicated. One of my best students. He made excellent work presentations and delivered more than what was requested. I'm sure your efforts will be rewarded and I'm happy to be part of this journey. Regarding skills, he has great ease in learning new technologies and is self-taught.

Would you employ the applicant to teach these skills and work with children?

Yes. He has a lot of enthusiasm and a sense of humor, I believe this will have a direct impact on his teaching.

Are you aware of any health or other issues which might make the applicant unsuitable for working at camp?

No

Would you recommend the applicant for participation in a cultural exchange program?

Absolutely. He has an excellent level of English. Totally fluent. Furthermore, it programs very well and will be a great opportunity to learn new technologies in new cultures.
